Issue Highlights

- This transaction is Ontario's second USD benchmark for the 2025–26 fiscal year following the 10-year USD benchmark transaction in June. This transaction represents the tightest 5-year USD benchmark from a Canadian SSA province this year and is further evidence of Ontario's status as a safe haven issuer amidst a headline-driven market.
- With this issue, Ontario has completed $26.6 billion of its $42.8 billion long-term borrowing requirement for 2025–26.
- The transaction received a very strong reception from a breadth of international investors. Good demand from the outset highlighted the appeal of Ontario's credit and a successful marketing strategy.
- By investor type, central banks and official institutions lead in participation at 53% followed by banks at 34%.
- The order book closed in excess of USD 5.9 billion.
